Reference : HKGSSUL – 170323 SB_U.S. Security Directive On Large Electronic Devices

To all Travel Agents,

U.S. Security Directive On Large Electronic Devices

Please be informed that with immediate effective, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has issued a security directive requiring passengers on select flights to the United States to place all electronic devices larger than a cell phone or smart phone in their checked luggage. It does not apply to spare batteries, medical devices, and power banks.

The new requirement only affects flights departing for the United States from the following 10 specific airports:

- Queen Alia International Airport (AMM)
- Cairo International Airport (CAI)
- Ataturk International Airport (IST)
- King Abdul-Aziz International Airport (JED)
- King Khalid International Airport (RUH)
- Kuwait International Airport (KWI)
- Mohammed V Airport (CMN)
- Hamad International Airport (DOH)
- Dubai International Airport (DXB)
- Abu Dhabi International Airport (AUH)

There is no impact on domestic flights in the United States or flights departing the United States.

Large electronic devices will continue to be allowed in the cabin on all flights originating in the United States.
