

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS TO BELGIUM

31 July 2020, updated 24 August 2020

Belgium has introduced requirements for customers arriving in the country.

- You are required to complete an online Passenger Locator Form (PLF) prior to travel.
- The form can be completed earliest 48 hours before your journey to Belgium here.
- After filling the form, you will receive a health QR-code. You need to show this QR-code (paper print or mobile screenshot) to the airline representative at the time of boarding and to the authorities at the airport when entering Belgium.

Check your options from TRAVEL RESTRICTIONS' EFFECTS ON TRAVELLING article on this same page, if your travel plans change due to the travel restrictions.

Please note:

Entry restrictions might be subject to change on short notice. All customers are responsible for ensuring that they are allowed entry into the country they are travelling from, to or are in transit through.

Latest entry restrictions can be found via the IATA website and appropriate consulate or embassy.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS TO DENMARK

10 July 2020, updated 24 August 2020

Denmark currently allows unrestricted entry for nationals and residents of most Schengen and EU countries, with a few exceptions. The Danish authorities update the list of approved countries on a weekly basis based on the COVID-19 situation in each country.

- To be allowed to enter Denmark, nationals of Nordic countries are required to hold a valid passport, national ID-card or a driver's license that reflects the nationality of the holder.
- Residents of the approved countries must fulfill the following requirements: valid passport, proof of residing in the approved country; for third country nationals that would mean a residence permit or long term visa; for EU/Schengen nationals that would mean for example a health insurance card issued by the country of residence (e.g. a KELA-card for persons residing in Finland).

For more information, we recommend you visit the Danish Police webpage.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS TO HONG KONG

26 June 2020, updated 26 August 2020

The Hong Kong authorities have introduced requirements for customers arriving in Hong Kong.

- You are required to fill out Passenger Locator (PLF) and quarantine forms. The Hong Kong health authorities recommend that you do this electronically earliest 48h prior to arrival via this link.
- Also, you will be tested for COVID-19 upon arrival.
- You need to stay in 14 days quarantine in a hotel after arriving to Hong Kong. Quarantine is with your own expense and you need to provide a confirmation of room reservation. Please note that for example accommodation in Airbnb, hostel, service apartment, or staying with a friend is not allowed. If you live in Hong Kong, it is allowed to stay home during quarantine.
- There are restrictions in place for foreigners arriving in Hong Kong, for example EU-nationals are not allowed entry currently, unless holding residence permits.
- Customers who have been in Bangladesh, India, Indonesia, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines, South Africa, Kazakhstan or in the USA in the past 14 days must have a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) test result that has been issued maximum 72 hours before flight departure. The certificate must be in Chinese or English and bear the name of the customer and his/her identity card or passport number. Customers will also need to provide a confirmation of a room reservation in Hong Kong for at least 14 days starting on the day of arrival. These documents need to be shown to the airline agent before being accepted on the flight and to the authorities on arrival.

Transferring via Hong Kong to other international destinations is allowed, provided;

- your flight to Hong Kong and your connecting flight from Hong Kong, are included in the same ticket (separate tickets are not allowed).
- you have boarding passes to all flights printed at the check in counter of your departure airport, and your baggage is checked through until the final destination.
- maximum connection time is 24h.

- you are eligible to enter at your destination country (the country's COVID-19 restrictions and travel document requirements are fulfilled).
- you do not have an onward flight to mainland China (connecting flights to mainland China are currently only allowed for passengers holding Diplomatic passports).
- Transferring via Hong Kong from mainland China to other countries is currently allowed, if other requirements mentioned above are fulfilled.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS TO JAPAN

26 June 2020, updated 1 September 2020

The Japanese authorities have introduced requirements for customers arriving in the country.

- For example, as an EU national, including children and spouses of Japanese nationals, you are required to obtain a visa prior to travel to Japan, unless you hold a permanent resident card or are a long-term resident with a re-entry permit. Visas issued before 20 March 2020 are no longer valid.
- Upon arrival in Japan, you will be tested for COVID-19 and will be held in a designated area, at your own expense, until the test result is received. This is normally a one-night stay.
- In addition, you will be requested to stay at a location designated by the Quarantine Station Chief for 14 days, again at your own expense, and to refrain from using public transportation. Japanese nationals and residents may self-quarantine at home.

Residents of Japan who have left Japan before 31 August 2020 with a re-entry permit can return to Japan, provided that they hold the following:

- A Letter of Confirmation allowing the re-entry into Japan
- A medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (by nasopharyngeal swab or saliva test) issued maximum 72 hours before the flight.

Residents of Japan who leave Japan on or after 1 September 2020 with a re-entry permit can return to Japan, must hold the following;

- A receipt that they have requested re-entry (issued by the Japanese immigration upon exiting Japan)
- A medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (by nasopharyngeal swab or saliva test) issued maximum 72 hours before the flight.

Holders of valid Japanese visas, issued at an embassy or consulate abroad, are allowed entry to Japan, provided they hold the following:

- A medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (by nasopharyngeal swab or saliva test) issued maximum 72 hours before the flight.
- You must show the medical certificate to the airline agent before being accepted on the flight.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS TO CHINA

The Chinese authorities have introduced new requirements for passengers arriving in China. Kindly see more about these requirements and related links to acquire more information.

16. 09. 2020

First published on 17 July 2020

- Foreign visitors must hold a visa that has been issued after 28 March 2020. Please go to the IATA website for more information and exceptions.
- All customers are required to complete a Passenger Locator Form (PLF), also called an Electronic Health Declaration, prior to travel and show proof of having completed the form to the airline before boarding and to the authorities on arrival (a print/screenshot of the QR-code received upon completion of the electronic declaration).

You can make the electronic declaration via the following channels:

- Wechat (recommendable)
- China Customs mobile app
You can change the language from Chinese to English by choosing “Health Declaration” on the first page of the app. After this, you can see the English language option in the right upper corner.
- Online
declaration: <http://health.customsapp.com/home/pages/index/index.html>
- Please note that the online form does not accept all email addresses (you need to submit your email address to receive the required QR-code) if you are not able to complete the online declaration successfully, kindly use WeChat or download the Mobile App.
- Important: Please complete your Electronic Health Declaration form only after you have checked-in on your flight to China, as you will need to enter your actual seat number in the form. Please have the QR-code (which you will receive once you have completed the health declaration form) available as you need to present it to the airline representative at the time of boarding. You can see the pictures of the required documents here.

Effective 7th of September 2020: all customers travelling from or via Helsinki to China are required to hold a negative COVID-19 nucleic acid test result received earliest 3 days before travel. Please note that the test can be taken already, for example, 4-5 days before travel, if receiving the test-result takes 1-2 days, provided that the test result is received from the medical outlet earliest 3 days before travel.

- The COVID-19 nucleic acid test shall be carried out at a facility designated or recognized by the overseas Chinese Embassy/Consulate in the country where you start your journey (please contact to the local Chinese Embassy for details).
- You must submit the negative COVID-19 test result, together with a scanned copy of your passport biodata page and flight details (via WeChat or email) to the local Chinese Embassy/Consulate in the country where you start your journey from.
- A special Health Code (for Chinese nationals) or an Embassy endorsed Health Declaration Form (for foreign nationals) must be obtained from the local Chinese Embassy/Consulate before travel.
- Airlines are required to check these health codes/forms at the time of boarding – failure to obtain a health code/form from the embassy prior to travel or holding a code/form that will expire before the person arrives in China, will result in denied boarding from the flight.

It is good to know that your temperature will be scanned at the departure gate in Helsinki. Those not fulfilling the health requirements set by the Chinese health authorities and those showing symptoms of COVID-19 will be denied boarding.

Random temperature scanning is also possible during the flight.

All customers must wear facial masks during the whole flight and should not remove their masks unless necessary, e.g., during meals.

You will be tested for COVID-19 on arrival and will be quarantined for 14 days at your own cost in designated places.

If your travel plans change due to the travel restrictions, please check your options here.

Please note:

Entry restrictions might be subject to change on short notice. All customers are responsible for ensuring that they are allowed entry into the country they are travelling from, to or are in transit through.

Latest entry restrictions can be found via the IATA website and appropriate consulate or embassy.
