
Dear Travel Partner:

American Global Sales Update

American Airlines today announced enhancements to our award-winning AAdvantage® loyalty program, providing members with the continued flexibility they need. We're making elite status easier to achieve in 2021 and are introducing a new rewards menu for our most loyal members.

Some highlights of the 2021 AAdvantage program:

Achieving elite status in 2021

在 2021 年成为精英等级会员

AAdvantage members can start earning elite status in 2021 right now. We will count all elite qualifying flight activity made in the fourth quarter of 2020 toward 2021 qualifications.

AAdvantage 2021 tier requirements

2021 年标准精英等级资格水平

This content can be expanded

	Gold (金卡)	Platinum (白金卡)	Platinum Pro (优选白金卡)	Executive Platinum (行政白金卡)
Elite Qualifying Dollars (EQD)	2,000	4,500	7,000	12,000
Elite Qualifying Segments (EQS)	20	45	70	95
Elite Qualifying Miles (EQM)	20,000	40,000	60,000	80,000

Elite status achieved in 2021 is valid through January 31, 2023

For 2021, we will also waive the elite qualifying dollar requirement for Gold, Platinum and Platinum Pro if members spend $30,000 on purchases with their eligible AAdvantage credit cards. This gives members another way to achieve their elite status goal.

Rewarding our most loyal members

最佳忠诚会员奖励计划

We thank our elite members for their continued loyalty by making status even more rewarding in 2021. Platinum Pro and Executive Platinum members will enjoy a curated menu of rewards, including items such as systemwide upgrades, Admirals Club day passes, bonus AAdvantage miles and more. This choice of rewards gives members achieving status in 2021 the flexibility to select the reward they value the most. Stay tuned for more details.

Caring for elite status into 2021

2021 的精英等级延期计划

As a reminder, in April, AAdvantage Gold, Platinum, Platinum Pro and Executive Platinum elite members at that time had their status automatically extended to Jan. 31, 2022 given the reduced travel this year due to the ongoing coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Elite benefits now available on Basic Economy fares

在旅程中享受精英福利，无论机票价格

Since October 1, elite members enjoy benefits such as priority access, upgrades privileges, access to Preferred and Main Cabin Extra Seats and same-day confirmed flight changes during their journey on Basic Economy fares.

To upgrade, elite members can use their 500-mile upgrade certificates, systemwide upgrade certificates or mileage award upgrades just as they do today with a Main Cabin fare.

We value your partnership and look forward to welcoming you on board when the time is right.

Sincerely,

American Airlines
