

AIR CANADA

SALES BULLETIN

February 25, 2021

Ref: SB21-05

Revised: Unaccompanied Minors on International itineraries

The Government of Canada has confirmed that the new hotel quarantine requirements will not apply to unaccompanied minors. As a result, we will lift the temporary suspension of service for unaccompanied minors on international itineraries dated on February 11, 2021 and reinstate our regular policy effective February 20, 2021.

For more details about Unaccompanied minors, please visit our Air Canada website or contact Air Canada agent. If you have such a booking and would like to rebook, please contact your booking agent or Air Canada agents at 800-906-519 (from Hong Kong) or 400-112-277 (from Shenzhen/Guangzhou). For international and other numbers, visit www.aircanada.com/othernumbers.

For the latest information on new entry requirements for Canada, please visit the Government of Canada. Make sure to review the government entry requirements prior to travel.